

Private Bills file Congressional Relations

COMMITTEES

1. List of CIA Subcommittees and membership
  - a. House Armed Services - 5
  - b. House Appropriations - 3
  - c. Senate Armed Services and Appropriations (Combined) - 4
2. Total briefings of Congressional Committees 1963 - 30
3. Committees briefed (other than CIA Subcommittees)
  - a. Joint Committee on Atomic Energy - 2
  - b. Senate Foreign Relations - 2
  - c. House Defense Appropriations - 1
  - d. Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee - 4
  - e. House Foreign Affairs - 3
  - f. House Space - 1
  - g. House Armed Services Subcommittee #1 (retirement) - 3
  - h. House Ways and Means - 1
  - i. Senate Foreign Relations/ Senate Armed Services/ Joint Committee on Atomic Energy (jointly) - 1 (on nuclear test ban)
4. Committee contacts other than briefings
  - a. House Government Operations - Polygraph and Information Questionnaires
  - b. Joint Economic Committee - Material on Comparison of U.S. and Soviet Economies since Dulles' appearance in 1959(?)
  - c. Material prepared by the Agency for publication by Senator Jackson's Policy Machinery and National Security Staffing Subcommittees on policy machinery and staffing in the Soviet Union and Communist China
  - d. Hearings published by Internal Security Subcommittee over the years - Mr. Kirkpatrick's expose of Communist crowd handling methods; Mr. Helm's Communist Forgeries (was the first Senate Document ever to be translated and published under Senate authorization in foreign languages - Spanish, French and Italian)

NOTE: Special mention of hearings on nuclear test ban, Cuba crisis and

SENATORS AND MEMBERS

1. Personnel referrals - From 15 to 20 written referrals plus uncounted telephone contacts.
2. Contacts generally - include personal and constituent inquiries on various topics usually involving world developments
  - a. Specific references:

Senator Edwin L. Meachem; Senator Milton R. Young; Senator Thomas J. Dodd (referred a proposed speech on Viet Nam to us for review as to accuracy)
3. Personal comments concerning the Agency
  - a. Mahon reference to strong monetary controls
  - b. Dodd's praise of employees especially John Richardson.

25X1

LEGISLATION

1. CIA Retirement bill
  - a. Drafting of bill
  - b. Clearance of bill with Post Office and Civil Service Committee and Foreign Affairs Committee
  - c. Hearings
  - d. Contacts with individual members - 55
  - e. Floor action - every major statement made in support of this bill was prepared in this office.
2. Requests for reports on bills from the Bureau of the Budget and Congressional Committees
3. Review of all ~~legis~~ legislation introduced in the Congress for items of Agency interest and action.

JOINT COMMITTEE

- a. Number of resolutions
- b. Future expectations